

AND WHEREAS on April 2, 2019, the Claimant filed an Application to adjourn the oral submissions hearing and to re-open document collection and exchange with respect to validity, so that all issues on validity may be dealt with in a single hearing;

AND WHEREAS on April 17, 2019, the Respondent filed a Response to the Application, in which it consented to the request for an adjournment, subject to five conditions;

AND WHEREAS on April 23, 2019, the Claimant filed a letter indicating its agreement with the five conditions suggested by the Respondent;

AND FURTHER to the hearing of the Application held by teleconference on April 23, 2019, at 4:30 P.M., Eastern Time (Ottawa), at which the Claimant advised that it has retained an expert witness to prepare a report on reserve surrenders from 1896-1911 in the Edmonton region;

THE TRIBUNAL ORDERS THAT:

[1] The Claimant's Application to adjourn the oral submissions hearing and re-open document collection and exchange is granted;

[2] The Claimant shall serve and file an Amended Declaration of Claim on or before June 10, 2019;

[3] The Respondent shall serve and file an Amended Response within 60 days of receipt of the Amended Declaration of Claim; and,

[4] The next CMC will be held by teleconference on June 19, 2019, at 4:30 P.M., Eastern Time (Ottawa).
