ORDER

Honourable Harry Slade, Chairperson

UPON THE APPLICANT’S APPLICATION seeking leave and party status filed March 1, 2016;

AND UPON THE CLAIMANT'S CONSENT to the Applicant's Application for party status, dated March 7, 2016;

AND UPON THE RESPONDENT'S CONSENT as expressed at paragraph 2 of its Response, filed November 27, 2015, to the Applicant's original Application for Intervenor Status:

Canada is supportive of Iskatewizaagegan being able to fully participate in this proceeding and pursue its own claim for any compensation owed for the Garden Islands. Accordingly, Canada is not consenting to Iskatewizaagegan's current application, as it is an application for intervenor status only, and Canada is of the view that Iskatewizaagegan is - inherently - a necessary and proper party to Shoal Lake No. 40's SCT-3001-14 claim [...]. Canada submits that Iskatewizaagegan should submit an application to the Tribunal to be granted co-claimant status, failing which Iskatewizaagegan should not be involved in this matter.

THE TRIBUNAL ORDERS THAT:

[1] Iskatewizaagegan No. 39 Independent First Nation's Application for leave and party status is granted.

[2] Specific terms governing pleadings, and procedures to follow before the Tribunal shall be established in case management.

HARRY SLADE
